Hiker Challenge

Cliffs of Fundy Badge

The Cliffs of Fundy UNESCO Global Geopark is home to the highest tides in the world which have helped shape this stunning landscape. Explore the amazing cliffs, tidal estuaries, beaches, waterfalls, woodland trails, and lighthouses. It is also home of the legendary Kluskap and the landscape steeped in his legends. We honour the ethical space of the Mi'kmaw people and their oral traditions of cultural geoheritage. The Cliffs of Fundy UNESCO Global Geopark demonstrates the Earth's incredible natural history. Qualify for the Cliffs of Fundy badge by completing a minimum of eight hikes from the list below within one year.

- Thomas Cove Economy Trail Loop (full loop approx. 4 km), Level 1 terrain, easy to moderate
- Thomas Cove Headlands Trail Loop (full loop approx. 4.3 km), Level 1 terrain, easy to moderate due to overgrown sections
- Redhead Trail: Trailhead located next the Five Islands Provincial Park gate, ensures year-round accessibility, (approx. 6 km), Level 1 and 2 terrain, moderate
- Five Islands Estuary woodland loop (approx. 3.5 km) easy, Level 1 terrain, minimal elevation, some exposed roots but well defined trail
- Partridge Island Eco Loop (approx. 3.5 km), Level 2 terrain, moderate with some steep sections
- Clarke Head from Glooscap Campground (approx. 8 km), Level 1 and 2 terrain, easy to moderate when navigating rocky sections along the beach, close observation of the tides a must, safely accessible during a low tide phase (2.5 hours past high tide and 2.5 hours past low tide)
- Wasson's Bluff / 2 Islands Beach, (2 beaches, 2 options, varying distance), Level 1 and 2 terrain, easy to moderate with some rocky sections, most difficult is the descent to the beach
- Wards Falls Trail (approx. 7 km), Level 2 terrain, moderate with some steep sections
